FOR CLIENTS

THIS EMOTIONAL LIFE

Ordinary people and famous celebrities share a basic human problem - how to handle one's emotions, relationships, and negative experiences. Yet why are some more successful than others? Best-selling author and Harvard professor Daniel Gilbert weaves together accounts of ordinary individuals and celebrities including Chevy Chase, John McEnroe, Alanis Morissette, and Richard Gere. Topics examined in the series include the importance of early attachment, post-traumatic stress disorder, depression, grief, and other challenges.

THE ANGER WORKSHOP SERIES

Dr. Joann Peterson, M.S.W., A.C.S.W., Dip. C., Ph.D. spent more than 40 years developing anger / violence interventions for children and adults and collaborated with professionals and agencies across the United States and Canada. What Dr. Peterson found is that strategies to suppress anger often failed when people were under duress.

This series is based on Dr. Peterson's three-day workshop at The Haven Institute in B.C. The complete workshop includes thirteen DVD Programs, a 26-page Facilitator Guide and Exercise Book, and a copy of Dr. Peterson's Anger, Boundaries and Safety book. All programs are also available separately. Detailed descriptions of each are available on our website.

EMOTIONALLY FOCUSED THERAPY IN ACTION

Dr. Sue Johnson has been hailed as "the most original contributor to couples therapy to come along in the last 30 years." Now you'll have the chance to watch her conduct an actual session with a challenging couple haunted by the "echoes of war". In a single session, she helps them conceptualize their conflicts in attachment terms, gain an understanding of their negative cycle, and begin to reveal some of the vulnerable feelings that underlie their explosive anger. Commentary before, during, and after the consultation and session provides insight into her approach.
